Peter Cozens:

Executive Director.

Peter Cozens joined the Real Estate and Building Industry Coalition (REBIC) team in August 2009 as Executive Director. Peter is responsible for the management of REBIC and the Shelter Providers Political Action Committee Enterprise (SPPACE), working with staff on public policy initiatives throughout the area.

Peter came to REBIC from Forest City Land Group where he was most recently Regional Vice President. Peter's background is in construction and development of mixed use communities. Having previously served as a REBIC Board of Governor member, Peter brings a depth of understanding to the issues affecting the local real estate industry.

Born and raised in Ridgefield, Connecticut, Peter moved to the Charlotte area in 1992. Peter is a graduate of the University of Connecticut at Storrs where he holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Chemistry. Residing in Davidson, he and his wife, Jill, have three daughters, Ryan (25), Hillary (22), and Caroline (19).

Andy Munn:

Policy Director.

Andy Munn joined the Real Estate and Building Industry Coalition (REBIC) team in January 2006 as a Regional Director for Cabarrus and Union Counties. In 2007, he was named director of state government relations. Andy's main focus is the North Carolina General Assembly where he follows bills, attends committee meetings and ensures that legislators understand the affects of legislation on the real estate industry. Andy also covers local and state government issues in Mecklenburg County in North Carolina.

Prior to joining REBIC, Andy worked for four years in Washington, D.C. for Congressman Robin Hayes (NC-08) as a Legislative Assistant handling issues related to Housing, Banking and Finance, Taxes, Social Security, the Judiciary, the Budget, as well as directed Federal Grant outreach opportunities. Andy also worked for Congresswoman Sue Myrick (NC-09) in her Gastonia District office.

Born and raised in Gastonia, North Carolina, Andy is a graduate of Appalachian State University where he holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Political Science. His major course of study was in Town Administration, City and County Management and has a minor in Community and Regional Planning. He and his wife, Amy, have one child, a son named Henry.
